Foreword

We, the Senior Staff of the 1959 Memoir, have selected as the theme of our yearbook our school ring and the Lancer. In 1946 Manchester chose the Lancer as its symbol, and ever since, its students have followed him proudly in their many contests, whether on the playing field or on the rostrum.

Therefore, we thought it might be interesting to look with the Lancer at our school through our ring, which we so proudly wear.

So, with him to hold back the curtain of the past, we glimpse again at the year 1958-59 before galloping away towards our individual goals.

Dedication

MR. WILLIAM S. TROXELL

"Music is a prophecy of what life is to be; the rainbow of promise translated out of seeing into hearing."

Mrs. L. M. Child

That Manchester High School is a music conscious school with more than one third of its students participating in some phase of musical training or appreciation, is due largely to one whom students, co-workers, and the community recognize as an able teacher and a capable leader.

During his years at Manchester as head of the music department, he has been instrumental in the growth of the band and the glee club, and the organization of the Lance Singers. This year he is Supervisor of Music in Chesterfield County also.

As an expression of our appreciation and admiration, we, the Memoir Staff of 1959, dedicate this, our Memoir, to Mr. William S. Troxell.

In Memory of

Wallace Smiley King

Mr. Reid Conducts His Regular

Monday Afternoon Faculty Meeting

Mr. G. H. Reid, principal of Manchester District High School since 1931 when there were only 116 high school pupils, now heads an administrative and teaching staff of 65 persons. There are 51 teachers at Manchester, 11 at Old Broad Rock, and 3 administrators.

Both the academic and general diplomas are awarded, and in addition to the regular academic courses, the curriculum offers full courses in commercial, shop and home economics. In the foreign language department pupils have a choice of Latin, French, or Spanish. The instructors in band and one in choral have helped make Manchester a music-conscious school. And this year for the first time, there is a qualified instructor for a course in driver training.

Treasured Memories

"Another day, another easy 'A'," says Government teacher Robert Edwards.

"English is here to stay", Mrs. Elizabeth Perry warns her class.

From Our Classrooms

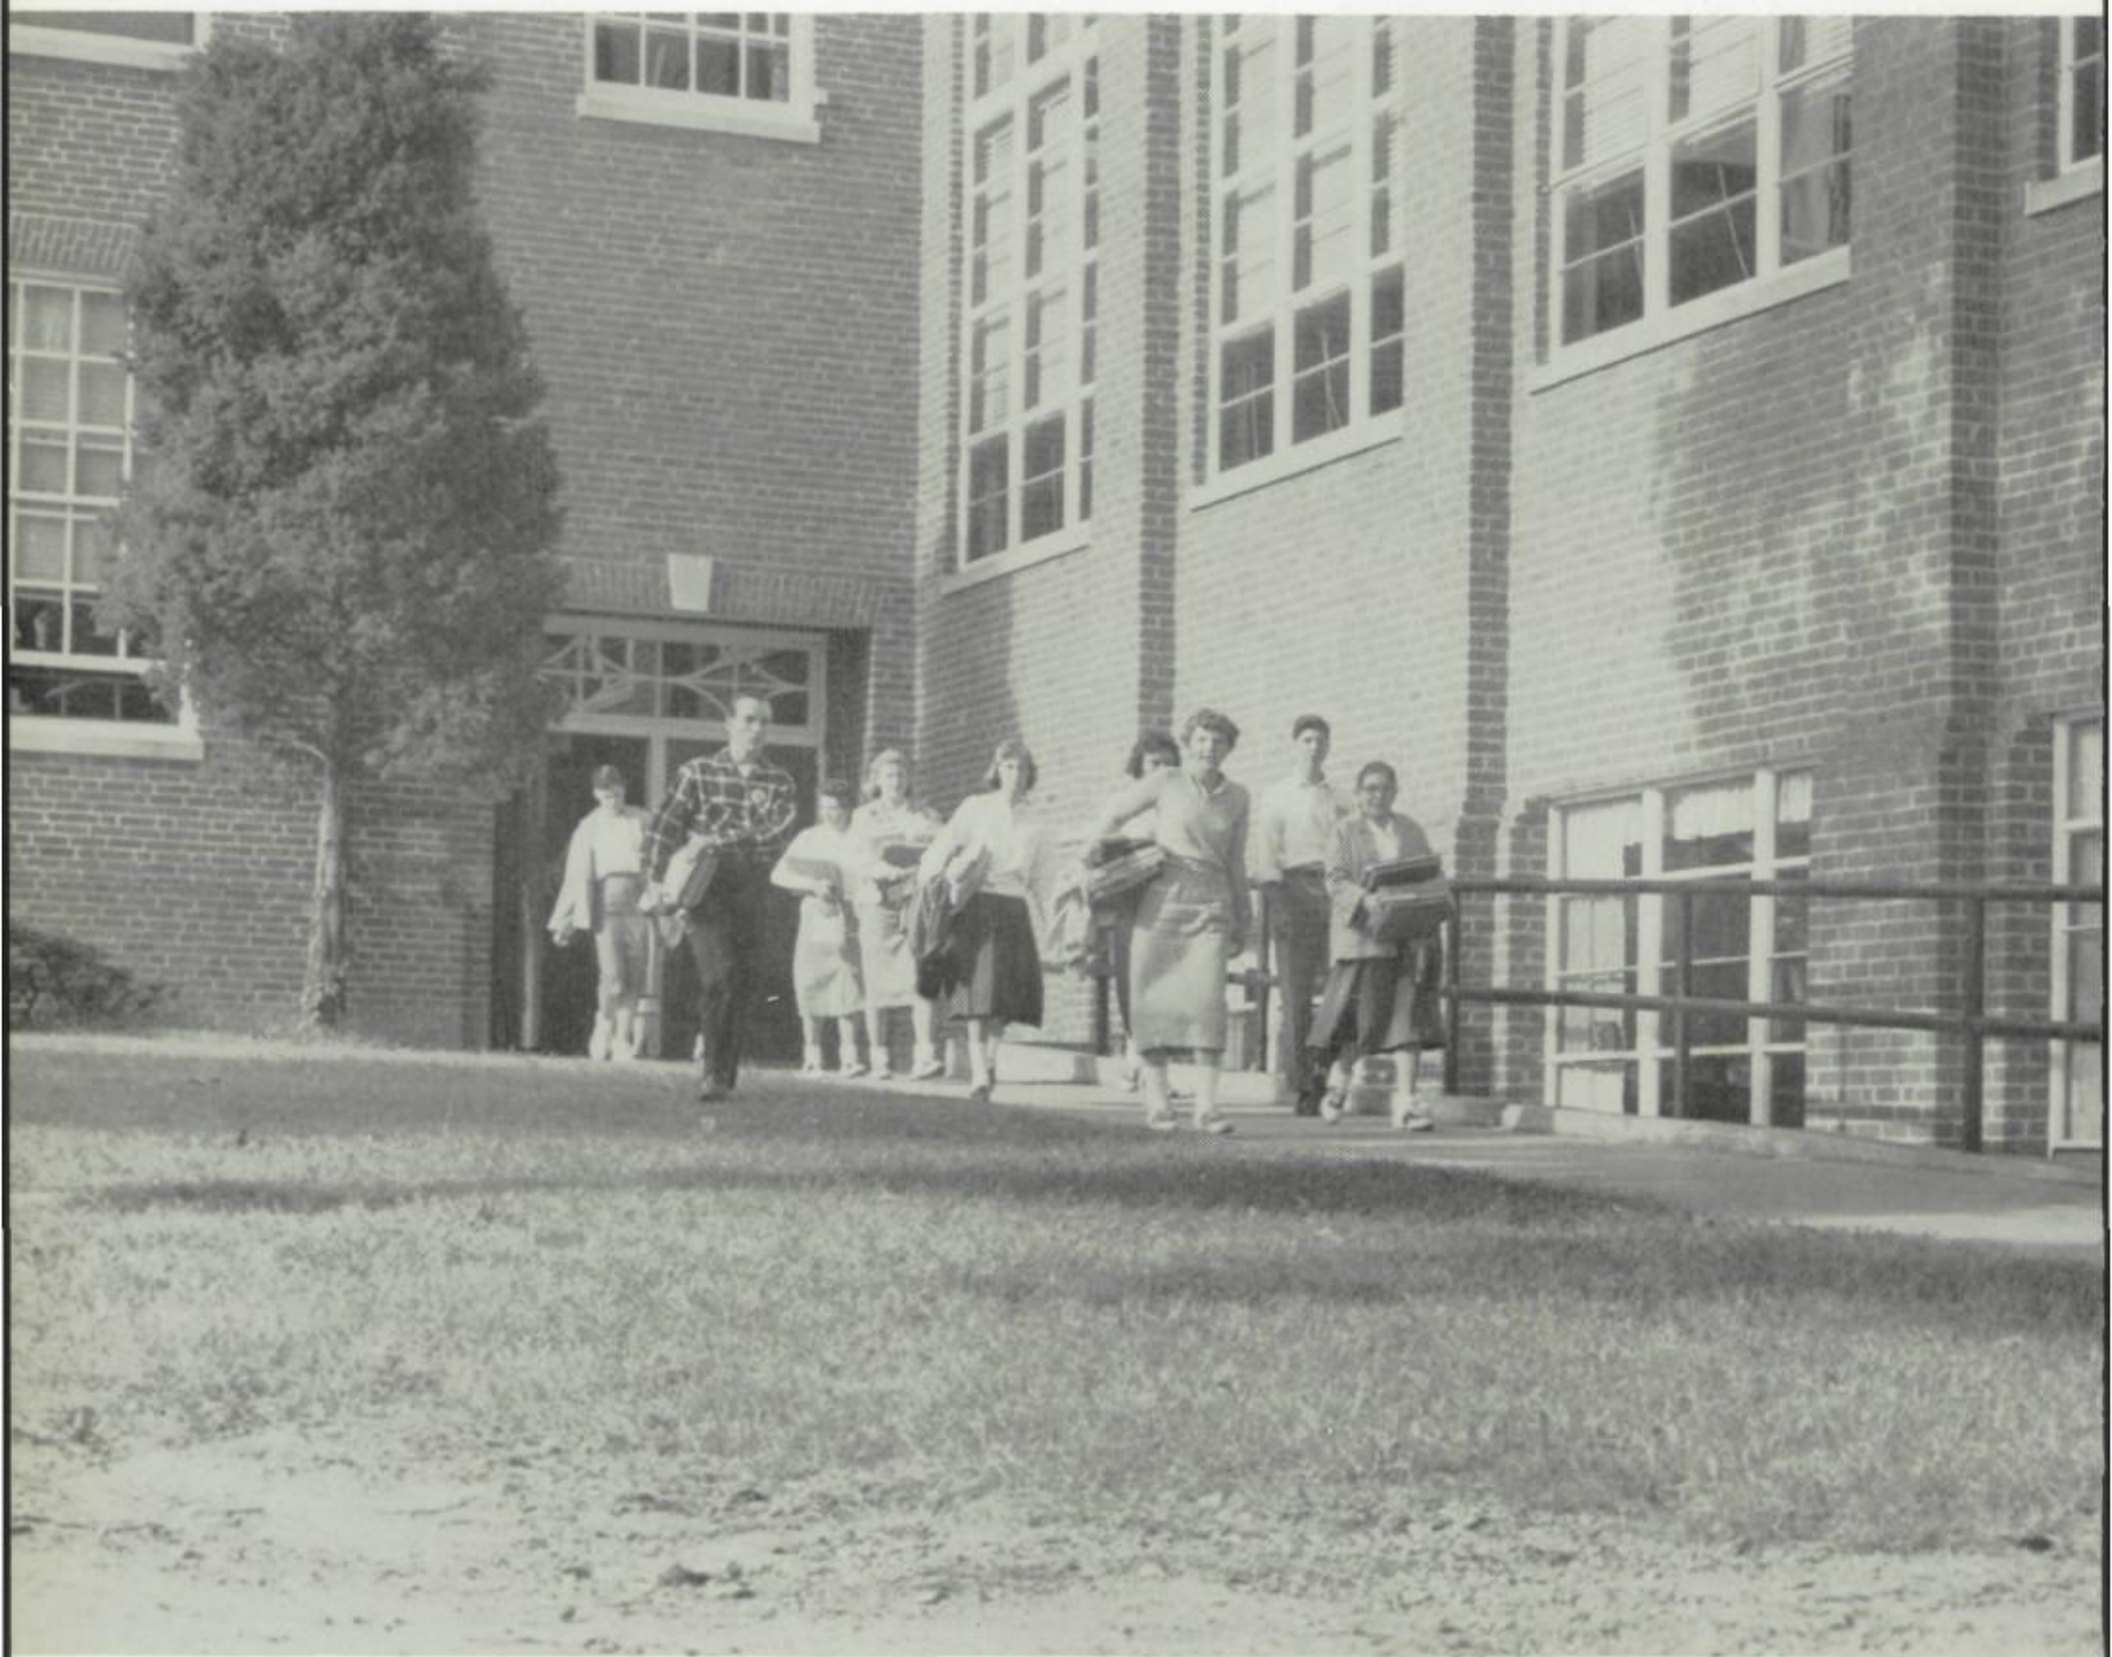

"Girls, you can read faster than that", Miss Beverly Johnson tells her Shorthand I class.

"Now you know that $2x$ plus isn't $3x$," says Mr. Eugene Keeton, new Algebra teacher.

School's Out and All Pupils

re Headed Homeward

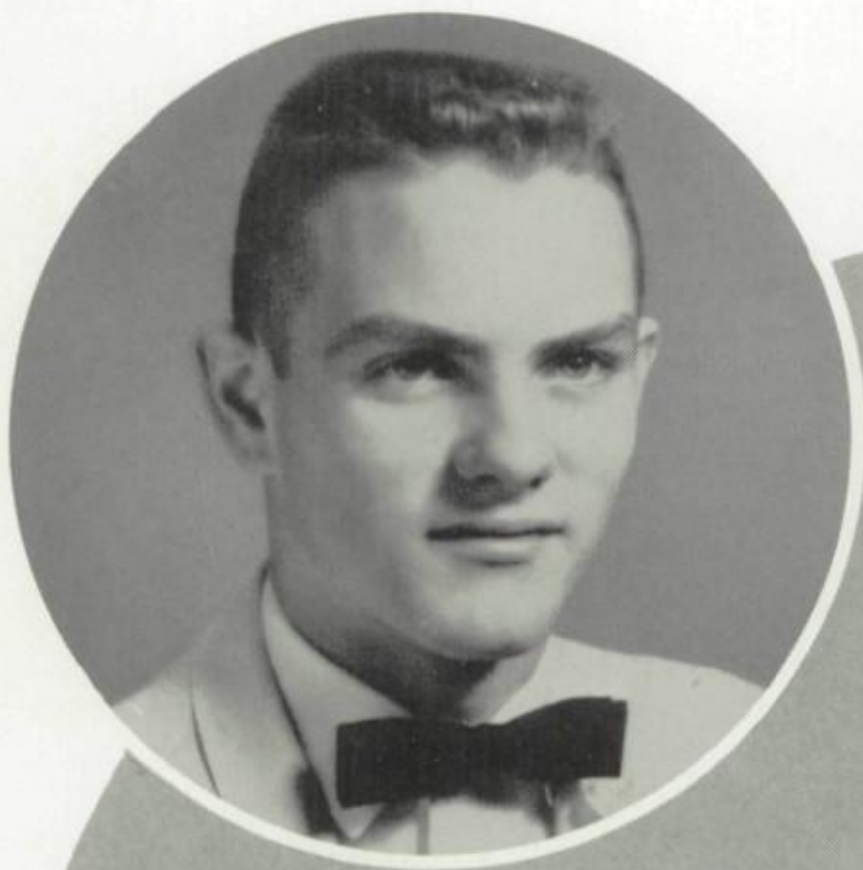

Manchester's 1,529 pupils comprise the largest enrollment in the history of the school. This is an increase of 59 over the 1957-58 figures. The eighth grade, made up of fourteen sections, twelve of which are at Old Broad Rock and two at Manchester, boasts the largest with 389. Next comes the tenth with 353, the ninth with 332, the eleventh with 258 and the twelfth with 197. Nor has Manchester ever before had so large a graduating class.

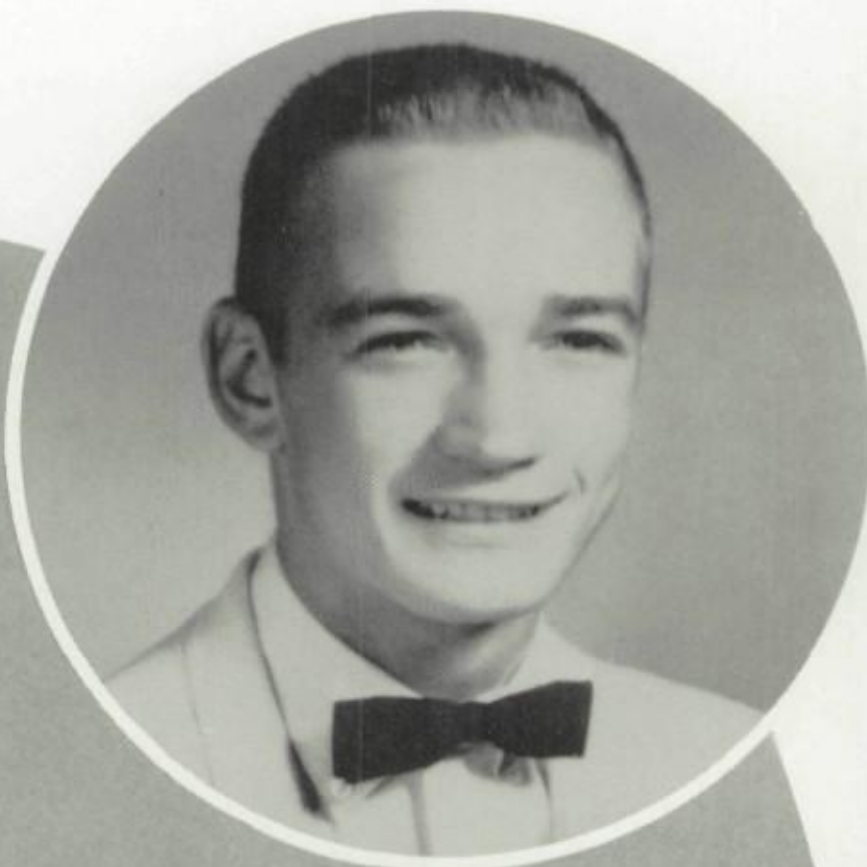

However, in spite of its record enrollment, the only pupils attending on shift are the eighth graders at Old Broad Rock.

Clubs Play An Important

Part in Everyone's Life

The clubs and organizations of every school play an important part in the life of every high school student. This is especially true at Manchester, because there are clubs representing every interest of a high school student of today.

The boys and girls who take part in the clubs gain valuable experience in leadership and co-operation. This knowledge may prove to be as valuable to the student in later years as that gained from his classroom studies.

The Lancer is proud to look with you now at the number of clubs which bring honor to the Orange and Blue.

School Activities

The primary aim of the S. C. A. is the development of good citizenship in each student. It provides a working basis for understanding among students, and faculty-student understanding and cooperation. The S. C. A. encourages school improvements and is concerned with the general welfare of the school. Through homeroom representatives who compose the council, pupils may voice their opinions.

The S. C. A. attempts to promote student respect for authority, self-discipline, leadership, fellowship, school spirit, scholarship, and a feeling of unity and belonging.

HONOR CODE OF MANCHESTER DISTRICT HIGH SCHOOL

As a member of the student body at Manchester High School, I HEREBY PLEDGE MYSELF:

To be honest with myself and others in thought, word, and deed.

To promote clean wholesome thought, speech and conduct.

To be helpful and friendly to teachers and fellow students.

To be considerate of classmates, officers, safety patrols and bus drivers.

To encourage decent conduct, always remembering that I represent my school and community.

To strive to achieve and maintain high moral standards that will be a credit to my home and my school.

Larry Green
Signature

The theme of the Honor Council for this year has been "Clear Conscience." Through our S.C.A. programs and posters we have tried to emphasize our theme. The response to the Honor System this year has been very encouraging, and we hope that in the future our Honor System will continue to grow.

The G. H. Reid Chapter of the National Honor Society, successor to the Beta Club, was organized at Manchester three years ago.

The purpose of the society is to stimulate the scholarship, the leadership, the service and the character of high school students.

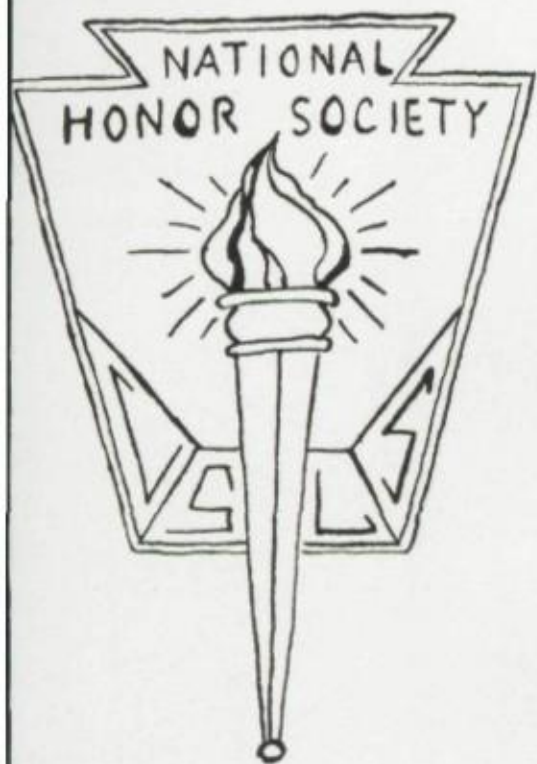

Its aim is to hold before the school such motives as will induce others to strive for scholarly habits, enlist in worthy service, and lead in all things that will advance the school and the individuals.

The principal projects of the society were the awarding of a scholarship to one of its graduating members and having a revised version of the Hand Book printed.

The Manchester Majorettes attended the Summer Majorette Camp in Pulaski, Virginia, in July. In a contest sponsored by the National Baton Twirling Association, the majorettes won second place in the corps division.

In August the majorettes drilled for two weeks with the Varsity Band in preparation for the football games and parades. This past year they have participated with the Band in all of Manchester's football games, in the University of Richmond's Homecoming game, the State Rescue Squad Parade, the Tobacco Festival Parade, and Toy Parade.

Jr. Y-Teens Follow Christ

The Jr. Y-Teens is a Christian organization for girls in the ninth grade, and is connected with our central Y.W.C.A. Its purpose is to promote fellowship and good ideals in the school, home and community. The most important aim, however, is to grow in the knowledge and love of God.

The Jr. Y-Teens aid in conducting the morning devotions. They also participate regularly in various projects aimed to help others.

Better Homemaking

We, the Future Homemakers of America, are fortunate. We share the sacred surname, Christian; we possess the precious name, American. We face the future fearlessly, secure in our heritage, our freedom. We face the future hopefully, confident in our abilities. We possess the essential elements in building a home: patience, labor, care, happiness—love. We are aware of our duties. We could never work alone; alone we are insignificant. But we have a channel; we know the way, for we are the Future Homemakers of America.

Jr. Classical League

Sponsor and Officers: Ruth Ann Phillips, Vice-President; Charlotte Pringle, President; Virginia Wilkins, Historian; Caroline Sanderson, Secretary; Jean Huff, Treasurer; Mrs. Maggie Payne, Sponsor. Schaeffer Renner, Sergeant-at-Arms; Cliff Attkisson, Chaplain.

"The fundamental purpose of the Junior Classical League, is to encourage among young people, an interest in, and appreciation of the civilization, language, literature, and art of ancient Greece and Rome, and to give them some understanding of the debt of our own culture to that of classical antiquity."

The Junior Classical League extends throughout the country. Manchester has called its particular branch the Latin Club.

There are many ways in which a student may achieve the club's goals.

One way is through projects. Another way is presenting programs at alternate meetings. This not only makes the meetings more meaningful and educational, but the member presenting the program must really dig and work hard to make it so. The benefit he receives is invaluable.

Emphasizes Latin Customs

To initiate the new members of the Junior Classical League, a Roman Banquet was held at school. The new members were slaves and were made to carry out the old members' wishes, such as serving the food. The initiation brought about a different idea and seemed to make the worrying initiates relax.

ROMAN REVELS

After the banquet, TOGAED ROMANS chat de omnibus rebus Romanis.

The Library Club is composed of students who have worked as library assistants. This year under the guidance of a new librarian, Mrs. Virginia Frymier, the club has worked towards its goals of improving the library service and promoting interest in reading and the use of the library. The organization's main fund raising project was selling school stationery. One of the club projects was buying a globe for the library.

Looking at large variety of library books are Gail Stigall, Marian Mathie, Patsy Andrews, and Dale Minter.

I pledge allegiance to FBLA and to the ideals for which it stands:

The right and privilege of a free education;

The mutual understanding and co-operation of all groups by all people;

The right to earn a living at a chosen occupation;

The responsibility of carrying out assigned tasks;

The DIGNITY of service;

The JOY of achievement;

The LOVE of country.

I will put forth my greatest efforts to PROMOTE, UPHOLD, and DEFEND these ideals for a larger fellowship in the home, in society, in business, for country, and for God.

Members of the FBLA at Manchester are juniors and seniors who plan to enter the business field.

Science Seekers Promote Scientific Learning

Sponsor and Officers: Jimmy Scott, President; Danny White, Vice-President; Professor A. L. Williams, Sponsor; Charles Williamson, Librarian; Brenda Jordan, Secretary-Treasurer.

The Science Seekers Association, one of Manchester's newest clubs, is open to any student interested in conducting experiments outside the classroom. Its aims are to increase scientific knowledge, to learn to perfect scientific skills, to serve our community and nation, to understand the importance of science and to help carry out the program of the Science Clubs of America.

Mr. A. L. Williams, club sponsor, encourages each member to have a project of his own and to report to the club on the project.

Upon becoming seniors, members are eligible to take the Westinghouse Science Scholarship Test, the five top winners receiving scholarships ranging from $3,000 to $7,500.

This is just one of the many such clubs in the United States that is striving to help science-minded students to fulfill the limits of their abilities.

Quill and Scroll

Mrs. Marie N. Morris, Sponsor

For the fifth consecutive year the Marie N. Morris Chapter of International Quill and Scroll has won one of the three trophies given by the organization to the Chapter accomplishing most in the field of school publications. Twice it has captured the first place trophy.

At the 1958 Homecoming game it received the silver cup for the most attractive and original float.

Other activities include:

1. More than 250 visits for the Community Chest.
2. Sale of candy for the Manchester Rescue Squad.
3. Assistance to several new Quill and Scroll Chapters.

Successful Year

The Communique won its third consecutive Parents' Magazine award this year for outstanding community service, and for outstanding work in promoting democracy in the school. It won a George Washington Honor Medal from Freedoms' Foundation at Valley Forge.

S. C. A. cooperation helped in planning programs of interest to the student body and in furthering the paper's aims: Safety, Better Health, Honesty, Improvement of Scholarship and Better Foreign Relations. No new editorial aims were added, as the staff agreed to work for definite advances in present aims.

Special features of this year's Communique were columns by Marie-Claude Martiniere of France, former foreign exchange student to Manchester, and Mrs. Archie Boone, Pat Boone's mother. The Thanksgiving issue consisted of six pages.

Going to get ads are Barbara Moore, Charlotte Angier, Bland Crowder.

While Frances Burtchett gives Charlotte Pringle a look at what she's buying, Sylvia Clapp takes her subscription.

Mrs. Bernie W. Bowles, Sponsor

Following the trend around Manchester, which seems to be to do things in a bigger and better way, the 1959 Memoir staff has put together the biggest and best Memoir that Manchester has yet seen.

The senior and junior staffs have worked hard by soliciting ads, by selling more subscriptions than ever before and by drawing up and arranging pages. All of these things go together to bring you a Memoir that you will cherish and be proud of always.

Special Events

The everyday work of our school is highlighted by occasional happenings worthy of being recorded.

During the half-time of the Thanksgiving Day football classic with Thomas Dale, the various clubs entered floats depicting the homecoming theme, "Lanny Views the Past." For having the best float, Quill and Scroll was awarded the trophy. The event, however, to which everyone looked forward, was the crowning of the homecoming queen, Doris Rakes.

Senior superlatives were chosen by their classmates as being most representative of certain characteristic traits.

December 20, 1958, will long be remembered as the night when the Senior Class held its Christmas Dance with White Christmas as its theme.

Sports Are Enjoyed B

All The Students

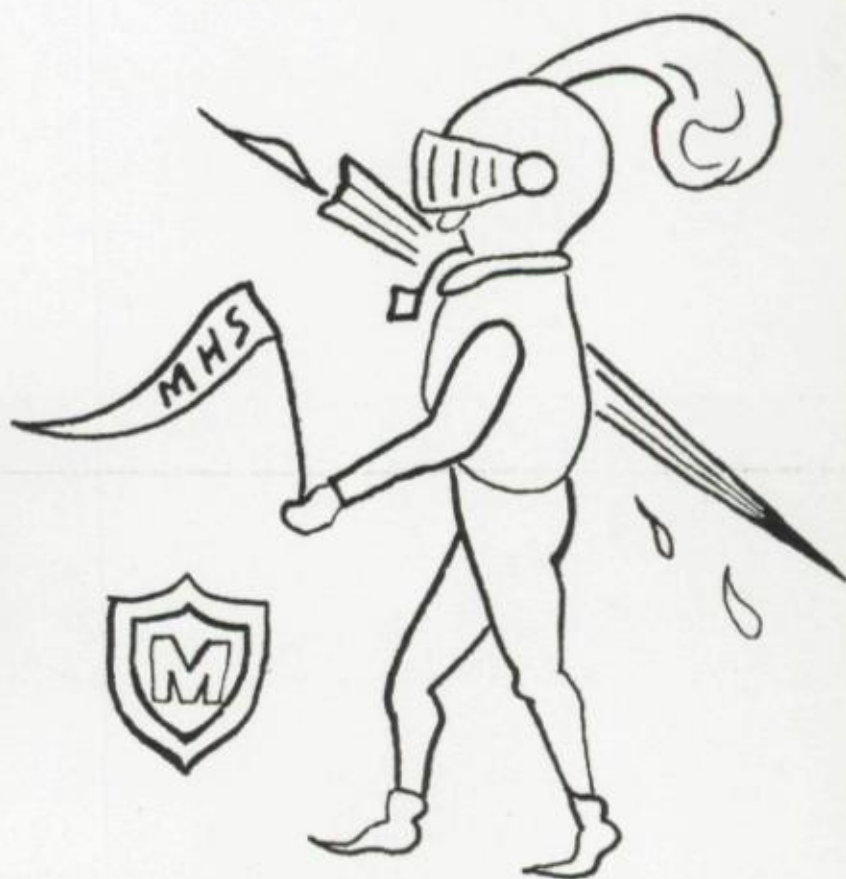

Sports play a very important role in the life of every student at Manchester, for when he enters, one of the first things he learns is that what really matters is the way the contest is played, rather than the final outcome. He also learns immediately the meaning of good sportsmanship as well as the importance of keeping himself mentally and physically fit.

The students who do not play on any of the teams participate in helping our teams win by cheering for them at the games.

The sports teams very proudly bear the name of Lancers and are equally proud to wear the Orange and Blue of our school.

Head Coach
P. K. Perrin

The outstanding spirit and sportsmanship displayed throughout the season made up for the fact that the Lancers had only 5 lettermen returning, which was about half as many as most of the teams in the district.

Early injuries in the line hampered the play, but with the timely punches of the backfield with its running and blocking, coordinating with the efforts of the line and the excellent coaching, resulted in a hard earned breakeven season.

This year's win over Hopewell was the first in the history of the school.

"Special"
Gal
we're looking for?

As always,
Gervie

We hope so. Because we have interesting jobs for "special" gals here at the telephone company.

If you're alert and like people, you'll like it here. The surroundings are pleasant, the pay is good right from the start—and you'll have lots of opportunity for advancement and raises.

There's a "special" extra, too. You'll have that wonderful feeling of making an important contribution to your community. Come talk to us about telephone work. We'd love to meet you!

SCHOOL'S OUT!

SUPPLEMENT

A Japanese

A highlight of every Junior-Senior Prom, second only to the crowning of the King and Queen, is the figure. Pictured here are some of this year's participants: Bob Apperson, Joan Cole, Joyce Fowler, Merle Martin, Linwood Matthews, Jimmie Hamrick, Jane Totty, Chris Webber, Billy Walsh, Lillian Parker and Pat Poh.

Much preparation, crepe paper and green paint preceded the 1959 Junior-Senior Prom, when the Class of 1960 expressed its farewell wishes in "Sayonara", Seniors.

The Prom

Hostesses: Audrey Carter, Diane Meredith, Sharon Dietsch, Mary Laine Cashion, Nancy Hines, Sandra Billups, Nancy Clarke, Jerry Lee Morton, Mildred Wells, Nanette Neely, Linda Florey and Gail Maness serve refreshments in the cafeteria.

Farewell to Seniors

Mascots John Massie Gray and Vivian Crowder, having just delivered the two crowns, watch the proceedings with wide-eyed interest.

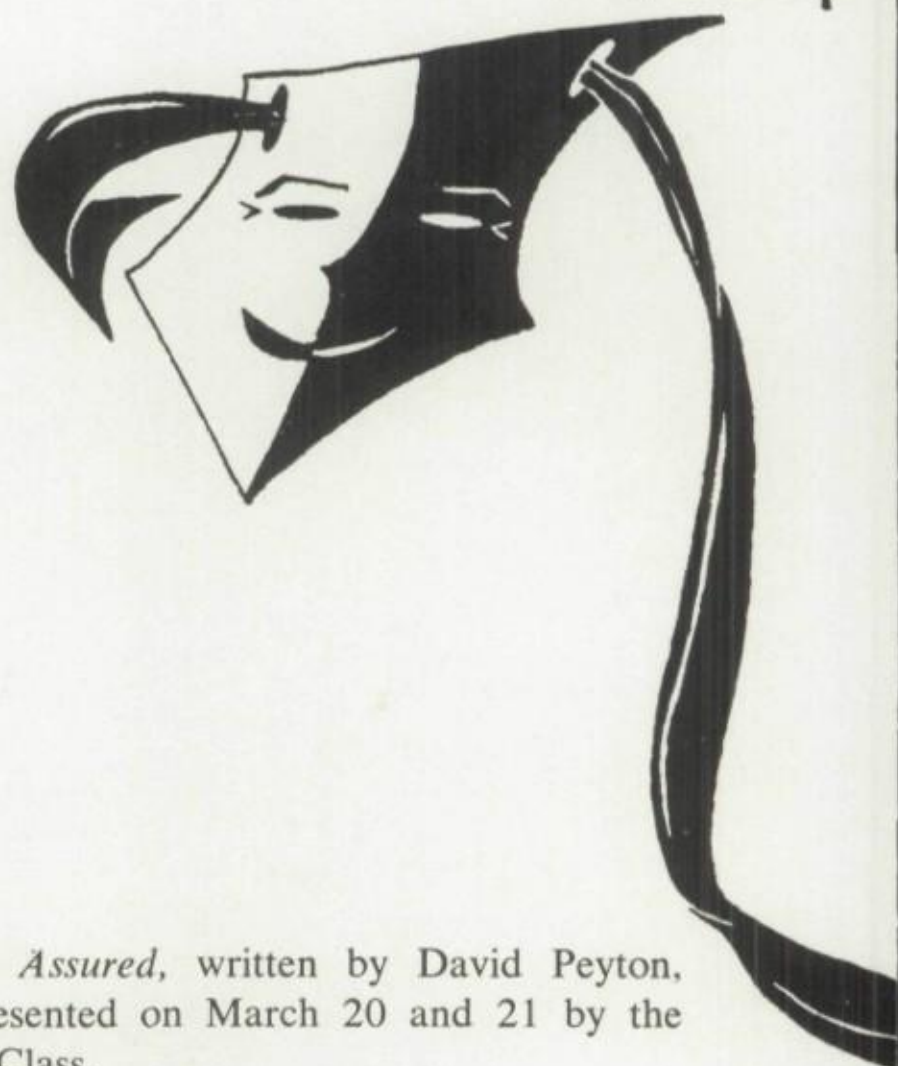

The climax of the evening was when Billy Walsh and Lillian Parker, chosen by secret ballot by their classmates, were crowned King and Queen of the Prom.

Music was furnished by Kenneth Henderson and the Continentals.

Ups and downs were had by all, as Jessica, played by Marsha Nelson, stares in amazement after she administers an unexpected hit over the head to Mr. Plew, played by Arnold Cottom.

Rest Assured, written by David Peyton, was presented on March 20 and 21 by the Junior Class.

This was the first project sponsored by the Class of '60, and the Juniors worked vigorously to build scenery and to secure props. Members of the cast practiced after school and at night, and the spirit of cooperation and team work contributed to its great success.

Cast: Arnold Cottom, Elizabeth Gravitt, Claudette Goldberg, Eddie Tucker, Carol Woodfin, Jane Totty, Douglas Maxey, Sam Harahan, Gayle Childress, Jimmy Atkins, Lynn Woodcock, Sandra Stallings, Jerry Chandler, Anna Mae Leighty, John Dodson, Dickie Watson, Marsha Nelson, Mr. Robert McKenney, Director.

Broadway!

Meet Me in St. Louis, written by Christopher Sergel, was presented on December 12 and 13 by the Senior Class.

The day Mr. Smith returned home with the news of his advancement to a New York office will long be remembered by the Smith family, and also by the Seniors who spent much time and effort in presenting this hilarious play.

"What have we here?" cries Yvonne Noggle, as Irvin Williams and "Friend" enter.

Music Department Turns Gypsy

John Rollison watches as Robert Accashion sweeps Yvonne Noggle off her feet.

The Music Department's first try at an operetta other than the traditional Gilbert and Sullivan, was received by an enthusiastic audience when they presented The Fortune Teller. Approximately 85 students participated.

Spring Concert

Duane Crowder was one of the majorettes who took part in the program.

Band and choral groups join in the finale of the Spring Concert.

On May 15, the annual Spring Concert was held with six Manchester music groups participating. The Elementary Band, the Mello-Tones, a singing group composed of six M.H.S. seniors, the Lance Singers, the Jr. Varsity Band, the A Cappella Choir, and the Varsity Band were the stars of the concert. Under the direction of William S. Troxell, the Varsity Band once again made a great showing. Mrs. Joyce Clark led the choral groups, while Kenneth Henderson directed the elementary and jayvee bands.

With "A Concert in the Park" the theme, the combined efforts of the six groups brought about a thunderous wave of applause at the finale.

The program, which is usually held on a Sunday afternoon, was presented on a Friday night this year for the first time. All agreed it was a night to remember.

Music Honors for

Ross Ambrecht, John Creasy, Calvin Farmer, and Regina Payne practice for All-State Band.

These groups of bands and choral were chosen to represent Manchester in a band and chorus made up of different schools in the area.

They were selected on the basis of their ability to sight read music and their talent in music.

All State and All Central

Those chosen for All-State Chorus are Robert Accashion, Yvonne Noggle, Carl Stargardt, Judi Rainwater, Bob Hasty, and Linda Burnett.

Language Tournaments

Students were chosen according to grade average for the Latin Tournament. Those selected this year were Nancy Clarke, Richard Hogan, Danny White, Tommy Hamrick, Edward Tomes, Billy Edmonds, Barbara Bryant, Carol Bales, David Bagby and Sandra LePrell (Seated).

Spanish students volunteered for their tournament tests. Some of the students who participated were Richard Johnson, Carol Scott, Sandra Staples, Maureen Tomlinson, Judy Napotnik, Bland Crowder, Alice Clark, Rose Marie Jones, Virginia Webb, Sandra Britton, Karen Napotnik, Dale Minter, and Karen Cole.

Brave students tried their hand at the new French course under the instruction of Mrs. Katherine Ford. Since there was only one class, they decided that all would take the tournament test for experience. Some of those participating were Bettie Reynolds, Ray Clarke, Delores Watkins, Mrs. Ford, Instructor, Leslie Yonce, Betty Smith, Sandra Ferguson, Judy Blain, Barbara Roberts, Regina Payne, and Jane Totty.

Marshals and Forensics

Each year the Junior girls with the highest scholastic average at the end of their Sophomore year are chosen as marshals.

These girls, six this year, participated in all Senior activities, having as their main duties ushering at Graduation and at Baccalaureate service.

~~In order of their grades~~ They are Brenda Heath, Anna Mae Leighty, Regina Payne, Sylvia Kester, Joan Baugh, and Kay Burdett.

Annually, interscholastic contests are held between outstanding students of various schools. Representing Manchester in this year's Forensics were Bill Dant, Barbara Moore, Maureen Tomlinson, Pat Ryman, Arnold Cottom, Regina Payne, Linda Wooldridge, and Judy Bierowski. The various phases in the competition are reading of prose and poetry, dramatic skits, writing of prose and poetry, spelling, and public speaking.

Softball Team Overcomes Handicaps

Co-Captain Doris Rakes, Coach Jane Sheema, and Co-Captain Carolyn Blackwell discuss schedule for coming season.

When the softball season opened this year, the Lancerettes were faced with a hungry monster, a steam shovel! With their diamond eaten away, the girls began to build another, but time was wasted chasing balls down a cliff into a swamp. As a result they began to practice in the mud . . . have you ever tried to hit a ball while sinking in good ole Manchester Mud? Well, these girls did, and through hard practice and determination they managed to give each of the following schools a hard fight:

Manchester	9	Thomas Dale	10
Manchester	21	Midlothian	11
Manchester	4	Petersburg	1
Manchester	9	Hopewell	11
Manchester	7	John Marshall	8
Manchester	19	St. Catherine's	20
Manchester	8	Thomas Dale	6

Baseball Team Surprises Critics

Front row: Coach P. K. Perrin, Buddy South, Robert Young, Wayne Cosby, Captain; Billy Kahl, Grady Daniel, Pat Poh. Second row: Richard Boykin, Manager; Billy Fridley, Tommy Sadler, Irvin Williams, Bobby Faunce, Gibson Forsythe, Colin Kellam. Third row: Paul Ridout, John Dodson, Ted Claybrook, Vernon White, Bobby Gordon, Ronnie Boyd, Jack Allison, Manager.

This year's baseball team completed a very successful season, proving many sports writers wrong in their predictions. Fine workmanship for everyone, with no one person carrying a great load, characterized Manchester as one of the finest teams in the Central District.

Captain Wayne Cosby and Coach P. K. Perrin look over this year's prospects.

Trackman Sets Record

Melvin Woodcock broke the track record for the mile and set a new record of 440.4.

The setting of a new school record contributed to the success of this year's track team.

With the construction of the new track, the team will be able to hold their meets at home instead of away as has been done in the past.

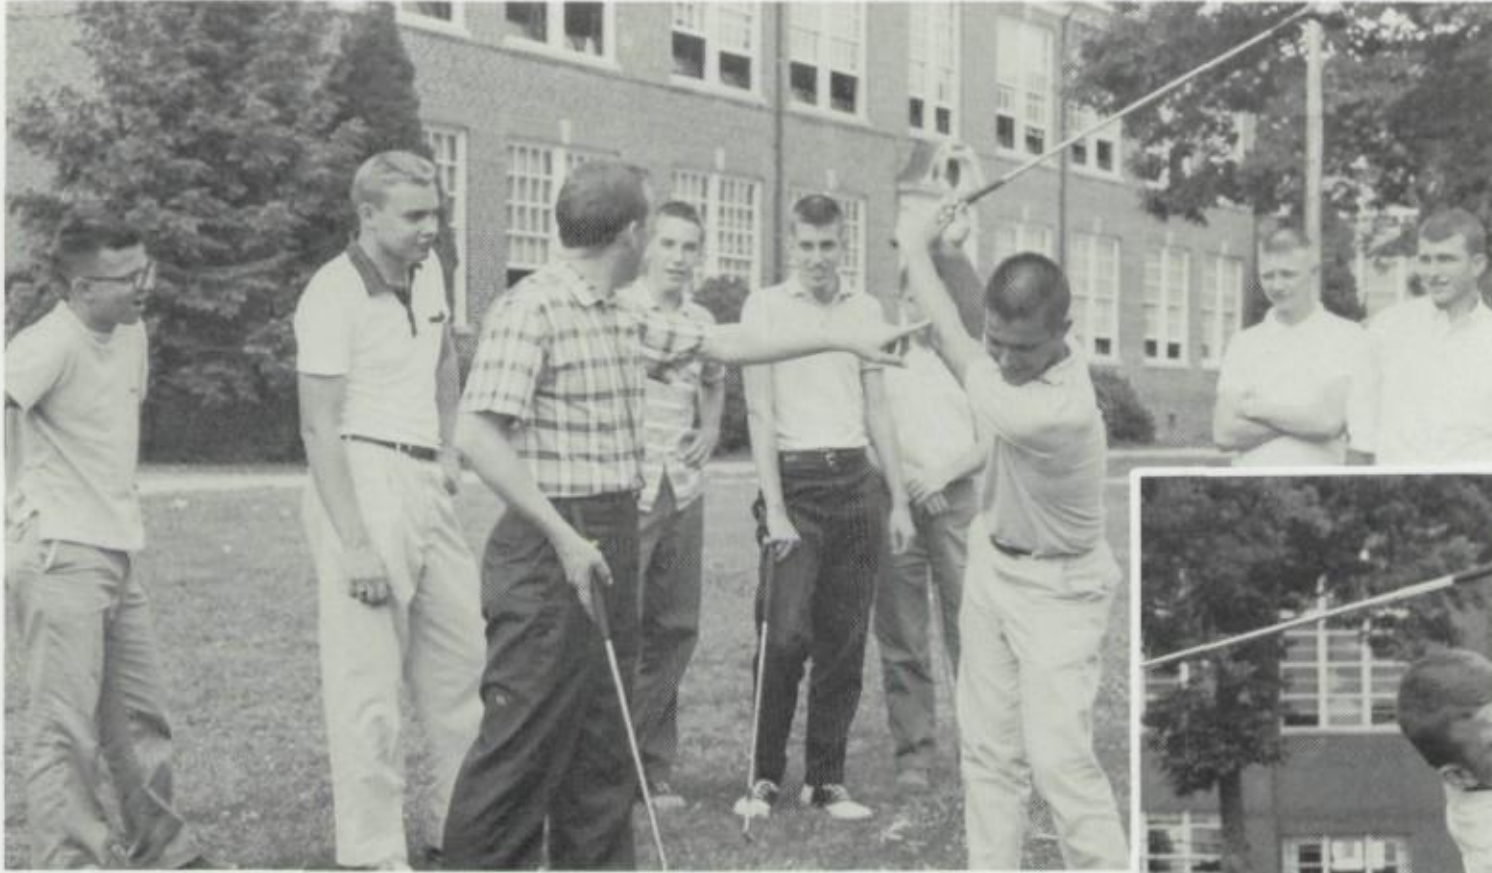

Coach M. F. Frymier and Captain Stuart Collins.

New Sport Is Golf

Mr. Arthur Holland, Sponsor, uses Gary Sappenfield to demonstrate the correct position for golf to Jimmy Watkins, Dana Wilcox, Bobby Edmonds, Chris Seaton, Dean Roberts, Bill Terry, and Bobby Neal.

Through the courtesy of Willow Oaks Country Club, Manchester was able to organize a golf team this year. With their fine coaching, our team made a good showing in the finals. It looks like golf is here to stay.

Bobby Neal practices in front of the school on Manchester green.

Each year those students earning 54 activity points are eligible for their Old English Monogram. Those earning 45 additional points are eligible for a star.

"Anyone can learn to sew when it comes to making room for a star", says Irvin.

Students Receive Honors

Bob Gilmore of WLEE presented the Sportsmanship Trophy to Principal G. H. Reid for outstanding sportsmanship of the student body during the basketball season.

Bob Hasty was the winner of the WRNL Scholarship to the University of Richmond.

Eddie Faulkner was awarded the National Merit Scholarship and also received the Ruritan Citizenship Award.

Juanita Snead—winner of the Lions Club Scholarship.

Carolyn Bankert—winner public speaking contest during a regional FBLA meeting at Farmville.

Shirley McCall—regional treasurer FBLA.

Linwood Matthews—regional Mr. FBLA.

News from Conventions

Delegates to S.I.P.A. Front row: Linda Burnett, Charlotte Pringle, Virginia Wilkins. Second row: Kay Burdett, Janet Wright. Third row: Ruth Ann Phillips, Judy Francis, Joyce Fowler. Mrs. Marie N. Morris, Sponsor of Quill and Scroll and the Communique, and Mrs. Bernie W. Bowles, Memoir Sponsor, accompanied the group.

One of the highlights of the 30th Annual Southern Interscholastic Press Association Convention held in Lexington, Virginia, April 24 and 25, was the Quill and Scroll banquet sponsored by the Marie N. Morris Chapter. The program, a pictorial review of the year before, was narrated by Lanny Gremlin, Charlotte Pringle, in-coming editor of the Communique.

Attending the convention were more than 1100 student delegates and faculty advisers, representing 152 preparatory and high schools from 11 Southern states and the District of Columbia, who discussed ways of improving their publications by an exchange of ideas.

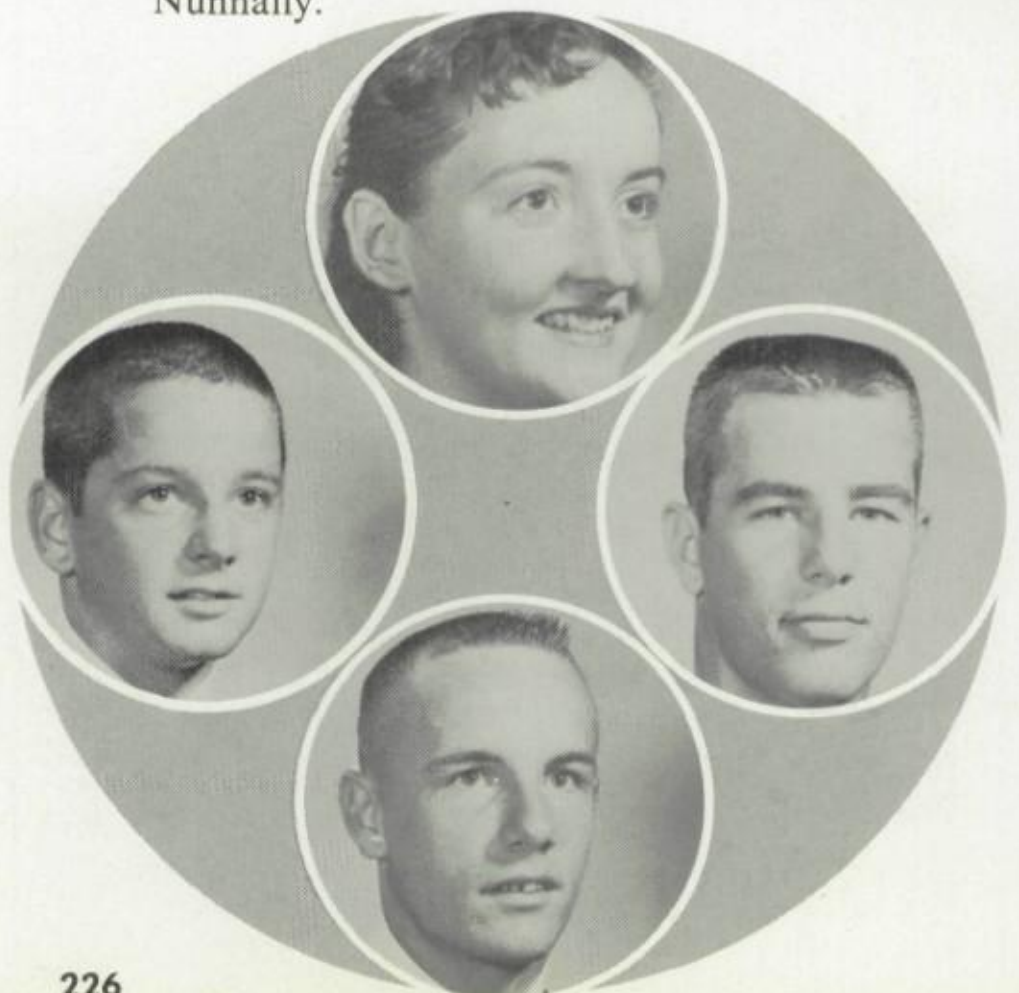

Mr. W. S. Troxell was presented the 1959 Memoir by Douglas Claud, Editor, on Senior Day.

Learning about our government and how it works are the main things at Boys' and Girls' States. Held at Blacksburg and Radford respectively, representatives from Virginia high schools work together and set up a model government and democracy.

At the conclusion of the week, the hard work and campaigning were rewarded when Governor J. Lindsey Almond spoke to the delegates of the combined states in Burruss Hall at V.P.I.

Manchester "politicians" who represented our school were Regina Payne, Willie Cashion, Jimmy Atkins, and Butch Nunnally.

and Publications

Principal G. H. Reid presents the Quill and Scroll Trophy for outstanding work on the Communique to Cecelia Boykin, Co-Editor. She also received the Quill and Scroll Key and the American Legion Award at graduation.

The trophy case was the best place Sue could find to show off her trophy for outstanding work on the Memoir.

Mrs. Marie N. Morris, sponsor of the Quill and Scroll and the Communique, was the only one in the Richmond area out of 10 from Virginia, and 444 in the United States, to receive the Valley Forge Class Room Teacher Medal. The Medal is given by the Freedoms Foundation for exceptional work in teaching a better understanding of the American way of life.

A Senior Hey

Juniors watch as Seniors march down the aisle for the last time.

Each year a week before graduation, the Seniors have their day—a climax to the year's activities and the "hey day" before exams begin. Dressed in the traditional white, our Senior classmates make their procession down the aisles of Manchester's auditorium and listen to the Class Day speakers. Class pessimist Bob Apperson and optimist Ross Armbrecht add a light touch to the solemn atmosphere. Poet Celie Boykin, historian Lillian Parker, prophet Sandra Staples, and Bobby Faunce with the last will and testament, bring tears to many Seniors' eyes and laughter to their hearts. But all in all, Senior Day will be remembered by the Class of '59 as one of the very bright spots of the year.

Seniors' faces show a variety of mixed emotions as the memories of their life at M.H.S. are put before them in the Senior Day assembly.

Day in May

It looked as if class pessimist, Bob Apperson, and class optimist, Ross Armbricht, were going to have a free for all until class president, Cliff Attkisson, came to settle the argument.

Ray Gobble tells his tall tale as the judges, Mrs. Marie Morris, "Bull" May, and Mr. Robert Edwards try to decide if his story is tall enough.

This is the first year that Manchester has had such a celebration as St. Bull May Day. The day originated on St. Patrick's Day when "Bull" Bill May decided to have a special day in his honor. It looks as if Bull Day may be at M.H.S. for quite a while.

Kipling's "If" Is Theme

Ross Armbrecht, valedictorian, is shown here receiving the Balfour Award for scholarship, achievement, and citizenship, from Principal G. H. Reid.

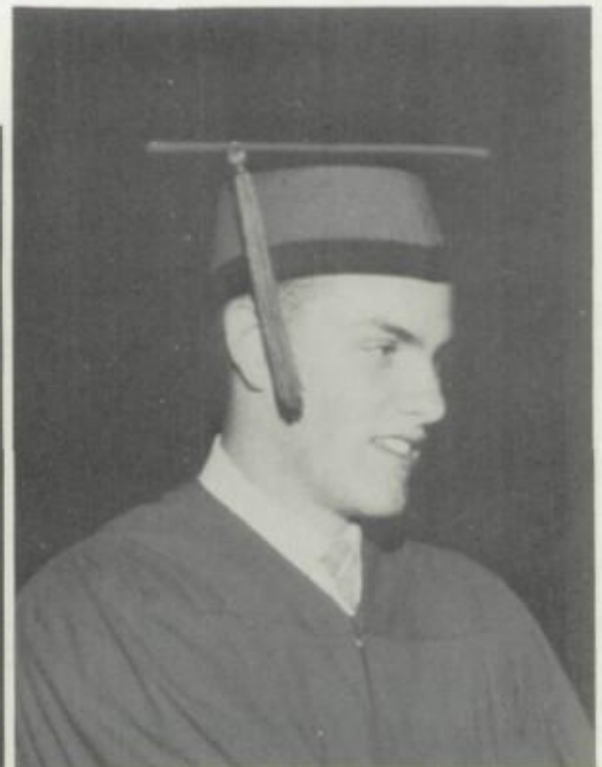

Commencement speakers were, according to custom, the five top-ranking Seniors.

Ross Armbrecht, valedictorian, had as his topic "If You Can Keep Your Head." Margaret Core's choice was "If You Can Wait", and Pat Kern spoke on "If You Can Dream". Mary Morris, number two in the class, spoke on that part of the poem "Hold On", and the final speaker was Cecelia Boykin with "Yours Is the Earth" as her topic.

Cliffy Attkisson received the Sons of the American Revolution Citizenship Award for Boys.

The Girls' Sports Award from Joe Ukrop was presented to Carolyn Blackwell.

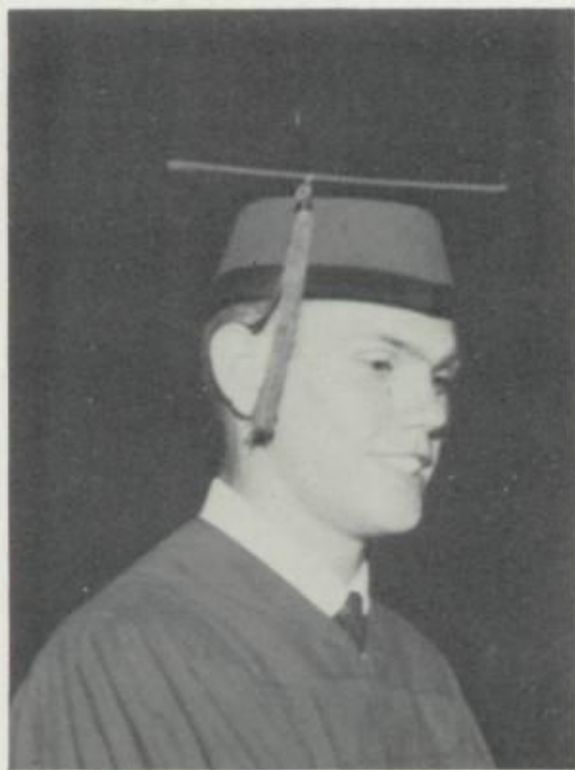

Pat Kern was presented with the Ruritan Citizenship Award for Girls.

of Commencement, June 4, 1959

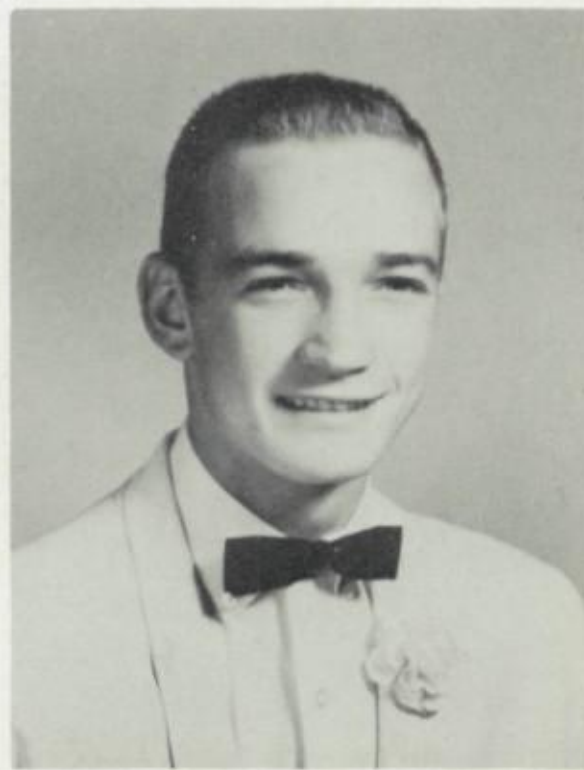

The Daughters of the American Revolution Citizenship Award went to Sandra Staples.

Harless Wright was the recipient of the James River Lions Club Athletic Trophy.

Principal G. H. Reid presents Mary Morris with the Sons of the American Revolution Citizenship Award for Girls. She received the National Honor Society Scholarship also.

Billy Walsh was presented with the Boys' Sports Award, given by Joe Ukrop.

Autographs

Sally,
you have been one of my closest friends all the past years here at Manchester. We have really had some good times together haven't we!? I don't think will soon forget the "suffering" we endured (?) in Mr.
McKenney's history class, do you?

I am really looking forward to my senior year here at M.H.S. with you & my other friends. I know it will be a great year for us all. (That is if we don't get Mr. McKenney for government next year!!)

Have a real nice summer, (it may be our last long vacation for a while) & be good. Best of everything in your future.

Love ya,
Ruth
